The California Narcotic Officers' Association (CNOA) and the Narcotic Educational Foundation of America (NEFA) are pleased to announce the Sixth Annual CNOA Red Ribbon Week Essay Contest. The Narcotic Educational Foundation of America will be responsible to coordinate the contest for the California Narcotic Officers' Association.

A panel of judges from CNOA, NEFA select the overall winners. Each winner will receive the indicated U. S. Savings Bond, which will go toward the student's scholarship fund. All Essays will be judged on neatness, contents, theme and grammar.

The winners will be announced at the 2007 CNOA Training Institute in Reno, Nevada. Each respective Region Chairperson and members of a Region Committee will present the awards.

All three of the winning essays will be published on the CNOA Website immediately after the 2007 CNOA Conference.
