0800-1700 hrs.

Walls, Wires, and Warrants

In this class students will learn and review advanced investigative techniques utilized in most major investigations. Students will be taught how to employ techniques such as: "wall stops", wiretaps, and search warrants, as well as discuss the legalities and restrictions involved with those techniques. This is a great class taught by some of the states foremost experts. This class is designed for police officers from all facets. A copy of the California State Search Warrant Manual will be distributed to each attendee.
