P.O.S.T. Certified

Instructor: Matt Buechner: Special Agent Matt Buechner is a 20+ year veteran of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR). During his 13 year tenure at Pelican Bay State Prison, he was assigned as an institutional gang investigator/security squad lieutenant, and served as an in-service trainer. Buechner served a three year assignment on a narcotics task force in Butte County. Currently, SA Buechner is assigned to the Special Services Unit (SSU), Sacramento, California, where he provides assistance to local law enforcement agencies when prison inmates or parolees are the known suspects involved in, or responsible for major crimes. SA Buechner is responsible for reviewing and approving gang validations generated by CDCR staff. SA Buechner's teaching experience includes training law enforcement agencies throughout the country on prison gangs and criminal investigations.

The Class: This workshop will provide attendees with an overview of prison gangs found in California, signs and symbols of these gangs for law enforcement to be aware of, current validation points, narcotic interdiction cases, latest trends and investigative resources. The groups covered include Aryan Brotherhood, Nazi Low Riders, Nuestra Familia, Northern Structure, Mexican Mafia and the Black Guerilla Family.
